DAY 1 – DEPART HOME → HAVANA, CUBA
Fly from your home airport to Havana, Cuba’s dynamic capital city. Stop at the Plaza de la Revolución, a politically important square and one of the largest in the world. In the evening, you’ll be treated to a festive welcome dinner in your hotel.

DAY 3 to 5 – HAVANA
Enjoy a guided walking tour of Old Havana and explore this historic city center with its many squares and busy avenues. Meet with an architectural historian who will show you some of the beautiful, fading, buildings around the city. Drive along the Malecón, Havana’s seaside promenade and enjoy a Cuba Libre in the famed Hotel Nacional. We’ll arrange several behind-the-scenes activities, including a musical workshop to learn about Cuba’s rich musical tradition that includes salsa and son. Visit the working garage of a mechanic who maintains some of the city’s beautiful vintage American cars. Watch a rehearsal for a contemporary dance company and enjoy a special tour of Cuban arts at the Museum of Fine Arts with an art historian.

DAY 6 & 7 – VIÑALES
Spend two days in the beautiful countryside west of Havana with its limestone cliffs and verdant valleys. Visit an orchid plantation and an organic family-run farm, and board a local boat for a cruise on an underground river inside a cave once used by aboriginals to hide from Spanish colonists. Return to Havana for a final farewell dinner at a local restaurant.

DAY 8 – HAVANA → U.S.
Bid farewell to Cuba and board your scheduled flight back to the U.S.

SPECIAL NOTE ON TRAVEL TO CUBA: In accordance with U.S. law your program will be designed to engage in a full-time program of people-to-people exchange.

APPROXIMATE COST: from $6,700 per person in double accommodations. Includes accommodations, all meals, guided excursions and activities with a licensed guide, entrance fees, gratuities and pre-trip educational program with a dedicated Stanford Faculty Advisor. Sample rates and Itinerary are approximate; a fully customized, detailed program will be provided to all Private Editions clients.

California Seller of Travel Program Registration #2048 523-50